What a great start made by all!

Dear Parents and Carers,

Happy new year from me, all of the staff team and our governors.

We hope that 2024 will be a very happy, healthy & successful year for you and your family.

I am delighted with the start the children have made this week. They have returned to school with real confidence and enthusiasm, which bodes well for the rest of the half term. As always, if there is anything whatsoever that you need our help with, speak to your child's class teacher in the first instance and if the matter is not resolved, email or speak to a member of the Admin team who will then look to book an appointment for you with the relevant staff member.

As always, excellent attendance and daily punctuality is of the highest priority (being in school between 8.40am and 8.55am). I cannot stress how important it is for every Blessed Sac child to be in school every single day and to arrive on time. Even lateness affects children so much. They themselves never want to be late and, for example, if their daily phonics lesson starts at 9.05am, regularly missing such vital teaching (as in learning to read) has a significant negative impact upon their success in every subject.

Thanks to all parents and carers who dedicate the time to hear their child / children read at home per evening and at the weekend. In doing this, consistently, you are helping your child more than you know, as reading is the key to unlocking the whole curriculum for them!

We will be inviting all parents to school to take part in a 'Come Read With Me' session week beginning Monday 5th February (further details to follow soon from teachers). And we will be inviting you in for the next parents meetings week beginning Monday 26th February. Closer to the time we will share with you our usual online appointment booking system.

Thanks for your support as usual.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Davey, Headteacher.
