Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time – 12th November 2023

Awake to the Lord

The wedding banquet is a consistent image of eternal life in the New Testament. Yet, the parable warns us that it is possible to exclude ourselves from the banquet of eternal life. It was only those who were ready, who went in with the bridegroom to the wedding hall. When God comes to bring us, will we be ready?

Life, including life after death is God's gift to us and a gift, by definition, can be refused. However, we will certainly be ready to accept this ultimate gift, if throughout our lives we have learned to be receptive to God. Our daily attitudes will determine our attitude at the moment of death.

Today's gospel concludes with a ringing exhortation "Stay awake." One important way in which we stay awake to God is prayer. "Why are you sleeping?" Jesus asked his friends, "get up and pray" (Luke 22:46.)

To pray is to awaken to the Lord who is always awake to us. In prayer we look for the Lord, desire him, watch for him and think about him.

To pray is to become like a child, to grow in receptivity to God's presence within us.

Going into Hospital: If you are going into hospital for elective surgery or treatment and would like to receive the Sacrament of the Sick, could you please request it from Fr Stephen BEFORE you go.

In hospital the chaplaincy team may not always know that there are Catholic patients admitted. If your relative or friend would like a visit from the chaplaincy team please make sure that the staff are aware of this.

If someone you know is at the end of life and they need a priest, to assist them on their final journey, then please request this as soon as possible; do not leave it to the last minute as a priest may not be available.

Remembrance Sunday – November 12th

“They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning

We will REMEMBER THEM.” (Laurence Binyon 1914)

A two-minute silence will be observed at the beginning of each Mass.

The UCM have dedicated a corner of the Memorial garden for the Month of November to remember all our lost ones. If you wish to place a poppy or cross in memory of a family member please place them in the area provided.
